A look at The Da Vinci Code

It's the topic in all the media. First as runaway bestselling novel and now as a blockbuster movie set to be released May 19. The Da Vinci Code has captivated millions. Its allegations against historic Christianity are colorfully portrayed – but are they true, or merely inaccurate accounts of centuries-old myths and heresies?

- Has the real historical record been suppressed?
- Were eighty different gospels contending for the New Testament?
- Was Mary Magdalene really directed to head the church?
- Does a secret society keep Jesus' bloodline hidden?
- Is the divinity of Jesus the fabrication of a fourth-century church council?
- How accurate is the research behind these and other assertions presented in The Da Vinci Code?

You are invited to join an Adult Study Group that will meet the next four Sunday mornings at 9:15 a.m. We will listen to some interviews with a few noted experts, including one from Western Michigan University. We will engage in some spirited conversation. Don't miss out!

Here are the topics for the next four Sundays. We will look at these questions in the 9:15 study group and in the pastor's sermons:

- April 23 – What can history really tell us?
- April 30 – Can we trust the four Gospels?
- May 7 – Is Jesus the Son of God?
- May 14 – What's the role of women in Christianity?
